Speedy Action On Lewis' Appeal Is Urged On Court

Government Presses U. S. Supreme Court In Legal Battle On Contempt Conviction

FURTHER DRASTIC FUEL ORDERS GIVEN

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—

The government pressed the United States supreme court for speed today in the legal battle stemming from the contempt conviction of John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers for refusing to avert the soft coal shut-down.

Justice department attorneys this morning formally asked the high tribunal to grant a prompt response to the petition for review of the case and declared the government's motion was "based upon public interest."

Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson scheduled a conference with government and defense counsel prior to the regular Saturday meeting of supreme court justices.

Expect Speedy Action

It was expected that the high court would lose no time in taking jurisdiction over the matter, in which rests an answer to the mounting emergency created by the 17-day-old coal mine walkout.

Meanwhile, the government drastically tightened its fuel conservation orders in preparation for a long coal famine and acted to increase strip mine production wherever possible.

The supreme court may announce its next regular "decision day" Monday—whether it will grant the government's request for review of the district court case which resulted in a three-and-a-half million

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Another hunting episode further proves that the grass is not always greener in far-away fields. Ted Leonard, R. D. 1, who lives near the Heinz camp, hunted deer for three days in the big woods and then came home to spy a handsome buck on his own farm. Telling his neighbor Howard Reno, to get his rifle, Leonard brought the animal into closer range and Reno dropped the big buck, which weighed 175 pounds.

"Dandelions in December" seems to be an appropriate saying for this month, as Pa Newc noticed several plants in bloom while on his way to work this morning.

A six-point buck weighing 125 pounds was brought down by Mrs. Dorothy Giordano of R. D. 1, near Warren in McKean county on Monday. It was her first buck bagged and the second season that Mrs. Giordano has gone deer hunting.

Another Neshaunk township deer was killed on Monday, it was reported to Pa Newc today. James Fobes, R. D. No. 8, killed an eight point 150 pound buck in that area.

Sunday will be observed as National Bible Sunday in the majority of the churches of the city. The observance is sponsored by the American Bible society.

Five years have elapsed since the sneak attack occurred at Pearl Harbor. Many people will go to church tomorrow with a prayer on their lips, grateful to God that peace once more reigns, at least on the

President Truman To Present Strike Issues To Nation

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—President Truman will make a "no compromise with John L. Lewis" speech to the nation tomorrow night.

The chief executive's report on the critical coal walkout crisis will be the toughest fighting message he has given the nation since he entered the White House.

One high government official described the crux of the situation today as:

Government Or Lewis?

"The question is whether the American government or John L. Lewis is the greater."

That statement came with another of similar vein from a cabinet member who said:

There can be no turning back now."

Mr. Truman will break his silence on the coal walkout Sunday evening for the first time since Lewis defied a federal court injunction against termination of the contract between the soft coal miners and the federal government. Mr. Truman has maintained his silence heretofore while the injunction proceedings were in the courts. To speak earlier, the president felt, might be prejudicial to court action.

In his Sunday night message, the Relief Plane Is Sent To Alaska Carrying Food

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 7.—(INS)—A relief plane carrying 17,500 pounds of supplies in the first of a series of shipments to ease Alaska food shortage was awaited in the territory today.

The plane left Portland yesterday with a cargo.

The Alaskan food shortage is attributed to the recent maritime strike. Several vessels now are loaded with supplies at Portland to follow the aerial shipment.

Lewis Orders Miners To Return To Work

(BULLETIN 2:15 P. M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(INS)—John L. Lewis today called off the 17-day old walkout of his 400,000 bituminous coal miners.

The United Mine Workers president ordered the men back to work immediately "until 12 o'clock midnight, March 31, 1947."

Lewis sent a letter to all members and local unions advising them of the action.

The mine leader made the announcement at a special news conference in Washington.

Lewis said an end to the walkout was necessary during the period of consideration of the government-UMW legal battle by the United States supreme court.

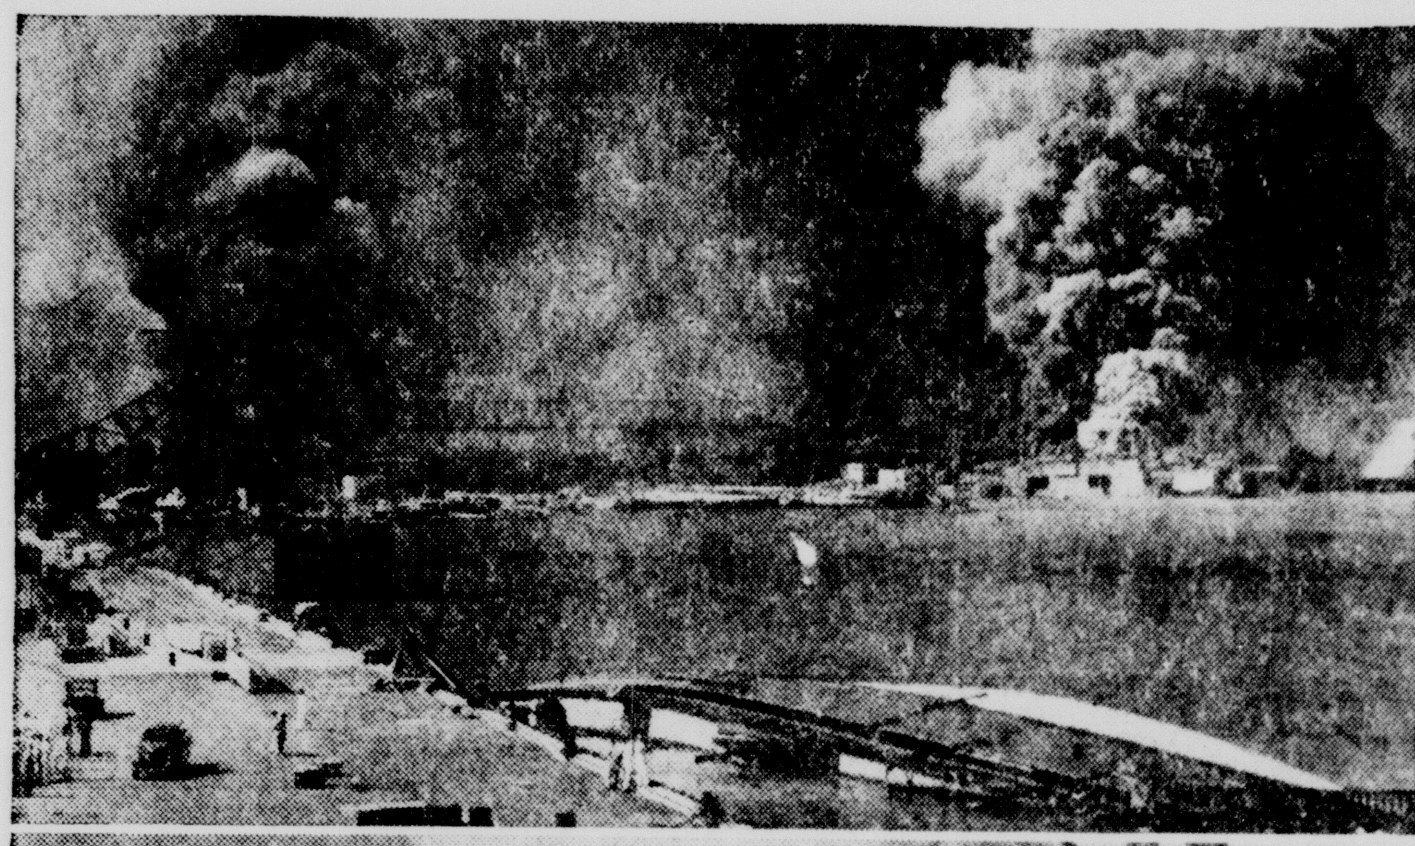

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(INS)—John L. Lewis today ended one of the greatest industrial crises in the nation's history when he ordered the 400,000 soft coal miners back to work immediately.

Lewis made the order out of respect for supreme court jurisdiction in the contempt proceedings growing out of the coal dispute.

The United Mine Workers leader ordered the miners to remain at work until March 31, 1947.

At the same time, the UMW chief said the negotiating committee of the United Mine Workers will be willing to start negotiations for a new contract with either the private coal operators or the government.

"Let's Remember Pearl Harbor"—And We Do

Between these two pictures, Pearl Harbor on the morning of Dec. 7, 1941, and the signing of the Japanese surrender aboard the U. S. S. Fifth anniversary of the Pearl Harbor sneak attack by the Japs stands as a reminder of the costliest and most extensive war in United States or world history.

Shaking his head sadly, Mayor Hartsfield said:

Famed Wincoff Hotel On Peachtree Street Is Scene Of Holocaust

Cause Of Disaster Is Not Determined—Fire Started At 3:30 This Morning

Fire Raged Four Hours—Many Persons Were Trapped On Upper Floors

(BULLETIN)

By ALLEN COMPTON
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 7.—(INS)—America's most tragic hotel fire today took the lives of 121 persons when flames of unexplained origin gutted the Wincoff hotel on Atlanta's famed Peachtree street.

An International News Service checkup of the city's mortuaries and hospitals revealed that 121 victims died in the flame and suffocating smoke that transformed the 15-story red brick Wincoff hotel into a tragic pillar of death.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 7.—More than 100 persons died early today in a fire that swept Atlanta's 14-story Wincoff Hotel before day-break.

Mayor William B. Hartsfield of Atlanta said earlier that 78 victims were known dead in the tragic conflagration.

An International News Service checkup at the city's mortuaries and hospitals showed that 121 persons were killed in the three hour blaze.

The Atlanta police department stated at 11 a. m. that 102 persons were known to be dead.

The cause of the disastrous fire that quickly converted the popular hotel on Atlanta's famed Peachtree street into a blazing holocaust was still undetermined.

The first alarm was turned in at 3:20 a. m. Fire Chief A. G. Styron said. The fire was under control at 6:15 o'clock but his men still poured water on the blackened ruins of the 196-room brick structure that was supposed to be fire proof.

A search of the smoking, water-soaked building revealed there was no outside fire escape.

From Third Floor Up

The blaze swept the building from the third floor up through the remaining stories. It did not spread to adjoining buildings.

The indications were that scores of the victims perished in the chok-

Westminster Dance In Cathedral Has Attendance Of 1350

Student Council In Charge Of Notable Social Event For Catholics Friday Night

Over 1300 people danced to the music of Duke Ellington's orchestra at the dance sponsored by the Westminster college Student Council in the dining room and ballroom of the Cathedral Friday evening.

The ballroom was decorated with blue and white, Westminster colors, while the large dining room was all white for the evening.

One of the features of the evening was Duke Ellington's arrangement of "Yearning", a song composed by Joseph Hopkins of the Westminster faculty for K. K. Poulton, who was killed overseas. Hopkins and Poulton had been roommates in college.

To finance the dance Student Council took contributions from students and faculty, with donations ranging from $25 to $300. College President H. L. Cleveland himself had $100 invested in the event. Because of the crowd of 1350, the contributions will be returned with interest.

Acting president of Student Council, Charles Hildebrand of Sharon, was in charge of the arrangements for the dance, working with Dean of Men J. W. Harper, McKnight and Dean of Women Mary Jane Stevenson.

president will lay before the American people the issues in the coal stoppage as he sees them. His message will be one for the American people, and not for any special group, labor or management.

There will be an "appeal to reason" but this appeal will be to the conscience of the American people as a whole rather than to the miners themselves.

Mr. Truman will point out that the bituminous coal miners should go back to their jobs. The appeal will be uttered not in the role of a president but as the president of the United States admonishing a minority group that public opinion and the welfare of the whole nation demands that they do their job in the whole interest of the nation.

As far as the administration itself is concerned, it is not a knock-down, drag-out fight, they have won it.

Mr. Truman will make this amply clear in his talk to the people Sunday evening.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Agriculture department reports that the development of three disease-resistant types of tobacco will permit the re-cropping of thousands of acres of infested soil in North Carolina.

The disease-resistant tobaccos were perfected during years of research at a cost of more than $222,000 after farmers in many sections of North Carolina were forced to abandon their land because of root rot, black shank and granville wilt.

dollar fine against the UMW and a $10,000 fine against Lewis.

At that time the supreme court could officially assume jurisdiction in the coal case and set a date for arguments.

Other Developments

Along with the legal maneuvers in the crippling mine shutdown were these other developments:

1. The Civilian Production Administration mobilized all government-owned surplus power machinery needed to increase the output of strip mines—open pits which do not require the skill and training customary in shaft mines.

2. The government announced that the 21-state "brown-out" in the use of electricity will be extended nationally effective Monday, if the coal stoppage hasn't ended.

3. Solid Fuels Administrator J. A. Krug limited electric utilities to 60 days' supply of coal. Those with excess tonnage were ordered to hold it for SFA allocation or turn it over to other essential users.

4. Deliveries of coke produced from soft coal were limited by the Civilian Production Administration to five specified types of users, including manufacturing plants and whole-sale and retail coke dealers.

5. Instances of priorities on iron and steel products was halted temporarily because of dwindling steel production resulting from the coal walkout. The action was taken as a blow at the veterans' housing program.

FAMED HOTEL SCENE OF HOLOCAUST

ing blackness of smoke before aid could approach them.

One of the first of the 280 registered guests to get word of the fire was the hotel telephone operator, Mrs. Comer L. Rowan. She said she had turned the switchboard over to her husband at 3 a. m. She said:

"I went up to the fourth floor where we live. My husband called me about the fire, and I rushed to the elevators. The elevators were not running. I went to a window. The firemen, thank God, had a ladder up. Mrs. Rowan escaped unhurt."

Scores Trapped

Scores of trapped victims, meanwhile, rushed to the windows to find no ladders. Some screamed pitifully for help, and before help got there, became silent in the smoke filled interior of the building.

Firemen reported that at least 28 trapped guests leaped for their own lives. Some failed to land safely and were killed in the fall.

One fireman was killed in a dramatic rescue effort. He noticed a woman screaming for help as she leaned out of a window on the 10th floor.

The fireman crawled up the ladder. He reached her, and, at that moment, a man leaped from a window in the floor above.

The plummeting body of the man crashed down on the fireman, tearing him from the ladder. Both were killed. The same woman later was rescued by another fireman.

Smoke blanketed the elevator shafts and boiled through every vent, much of it puffing out from the windows and creeping up the sides of the wine-colored brick walls.

Military police, from Seventh Army headquarters in Atlanta, were rushed to the scene along with local law enforcement agents. Col. F. S. Lee, provost marshal, expressed the opinion that some of the guests took their own lives rather than be consumed in the burning blaze.

Colonel Lee reported that his men heard a number of pistol shots fired in the hotel during the confusion and said these were indications that some of the trapped victims thus committed suicide.

Driven to desperation by the flames and smoke, others dangled from bed sheets tied to the radiators in their rooms, and before firemen could get a net in place, plunged to their deaths.

An Army sergeant, Harry E. Lindner, of Dayton, told how a bell boy saved his life. He said:

"I called for a bell boy. When he reached my door, he yelled 'Fire.'"

"Then we both got the hell out of there. My main worry, I guess, was my transfer papers. I'm being sent to Fort Sheridan, Ill. to Fort Bragg, N. C. I just pitched my orders out of the window, and now I got them again from the fireman."

The bellhop was Bill Mobley, of Atlanta.

In contrast, there was a woman sitting in a chair. Nobody knew who she was. She only sat there, silently dead. She was clad in a fur coat and her slippers, as if she were waiting for aid.

A small child was seen refusing the help of firemen. He said he would not be removed from the building until the firemen had rescued his "dad." Both were rescued.

The conflagration was by far the worst in Atlanta's history.

Every available force was brought to bear in fighting the fire and caring for the victims.

All of Atlanta's fire equipment was on the scene as well as engines from adjoining suburbs.

Police turned out in force. So did the city's hospital staffs. Ambulances screamed through the streets for hours during the dawn.

Grady hospital, the city's charity institution, was crowded to capacity, and even tables, covered with mattresses, were placed in service.

The fire apparently began on the eighth floor of the 14-story, 300-room brick structure, but the fire department officials were unable to say how the tragic blaze originated.

First alarms were turned in shortly after 3 a. m. (EST) and all the city's fire fighting equipment was summoned to the scene.

Fire chiefs said that the flames were brought under control at 6:15 a. m. with most of the victims of the holocaust still unaccounted for.

Although ladders were shot up to the top floor, many persons were unable to escape. Some of those who tried daring leaps to safety missed their marks.

Women and children were seen screaming in the top floor windows as the smoke curled upward and above the top floor.

Many of the guests did not know until the last minute that their lives were endangered.

H. S. Boyer of Tallahassee, Fla., said he was in a room on the third floor. He excitedly told how he fled the flames. He said:

"I heard some excitement outside in the hall. I thought it was some fellows having good fun. Then I realized it all was serious. I ran for it."

Boyer was in his pajamas, wearing his coat to protect him against the fairly cool morning weather.

Most Awful Thing

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 7.—(INS)—Atlanta's Mayor William B. Hartsfield viewed the ruins of the Winceford hotel today and stated:

"This is quite the most awful thing that ever happened in Atlanta. The hotel was supposed to be fireproof."

"I think the firemen have done a wonderful job. They saved about 30 people by carrying them across by means of a ladder to the Mortgage Guarantee building."

No one saw the accident, Shekter said, and Karlhaus residents only found the victims after hearing the honking of the automobile horn.

State police were investigating. Shekter reported that police had been unable to ascertain who was driving the machine. The accident occurred about 11:30 last night.

Shekter said the men apparently had planned to cross a bridge near Karlhaus when the mishap occurred.

He reported that the machine landed in four feet of water and that its horn had stuck, leading Karlhaus residents to investigate.

The four hospitalized men were reported by state police to be in satisfactory condition.

Record Crop Of Potatoes Proves State Problem

HARRISBURG, Dec. 7.—(INS)—The production and marketing administration for Pennsylvania reported today that 1,317,500 pounds of potatoes have been diverted to a score of non-profit schools and institutions under a Federal loan program.

Officials announced that more than 200,000 hundredweight were available for other hospitals, mental institutions and schools conducting free lunch programs. They were urged to apply to county PMA offices to help absorb the huge backlog of potatoes resulting from the record crop.

Chairman Clyde A. Zehner explained that approximately 500,000 hundredweight would be placed under loan since farmers were unable to obtain market prices as high as the government's support price of $2.25 a bag for high grades. Market prices were estimated at $1.90 to $2.

Dig 22 Million Bushels

Pennsylvania growers dug 22 million bushels of potatoes from their fields this year although acreages were smaller than recent years. Ideal weather and scientific advances were credited for the unusually large yields per acre.

The PMA, a branch of the U. S. Agriculture department, has offered to purchase potatoes where growers could not market at the support price. In most cases, only 20 per cent of the crop will be taken at first and the rest collected later, if no buyers have been found, according to Zehner.

He warned farmers the loan application deadline was December 15. Zehner said the potato alcohol program had ended and that "we're diverting all surplus good potatoes to channels for human consumption."

Housewives were urged to buy an extra 100 pound bag of potatoes to help prevent waste of food and to tide them through possible shipment difficulties resulting from the coal strike.

The $30,175 worth of "gift" potatoes allegedly went to the Wernersville, Torrrence, Warren and Harrisburg state hospitals, Cresson Tuberculosis sanatorium, St. Luke's hospital in Bethlehem, Norristown and Lancaster institutions districts, Sunbury Old Fellow's home, War Problems committee of Sharon, Philadelphia Catholic Institution Co-operative Institute and a dozen city and rural schools.

Approximately $550,000 worth of lime earmarked for Pennsylvania farmers under the PMA's 1946 soil conservation program may be lost if rail transportation is affected by the coal strike, according to Zehner.

He reported that all but 160,000 tons of the one million ton allotment for the state had been delivered prior to the bituminous walkout. Unless the remainder could be moved by the first of the year, the time fund balance would have to be turned back as an unused sum, he added.

The State Farm Show commission has scheduled four shows and contests for the annual state-wide exhibit January 13-17. They were: state police rodeo, January 13; rural talent festival, January 14; horse pulling contest, January 15; and horseshoe pitching contest, January 16.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 7.—(INS)—Beauteous Betty Grable is getting sick and tired of having to work when hubby Harry James is vacationing and vice versa.

"Our schedules never seem to jibe," Betty told your reporter with a sigh which left your reporter quivering in sympathy.

She added:

"Right now Harry is home doing nothing and here I am at the studio working every single day."

"That's about the way it's worked out since we were married four years ago last July. It's no fun, believe me."

Betty got her feelings off her chest out at 20th Century-Fox, where she's been working for more than a month in "Mother Wore Tights."

"Take this picture, for example," she continued. "It was supposed to start in September, but circumstances delayed it. If it had started when it was supposed to, I would have had a vacation at the same time Harry had."

"But, something happened; it always does."

Your reporter wanted to know when the picture will be finished.

"January 23," Betty replied. "That's the day Harry leaves for the East on his next tour with his band. So I'll be going along with him, just to be with him as much as possible, even if he is working."

Betty disclosed she and Harry intend to run their string of 15 horses in the East next year for the first time. All their racing so far has been done at coast tracks.

"Of course, they'll run at Santa Anita first," Betty explained, "but Harry is very anxious to run them in the East, like at Belmont and Hialeah."

John Carroll is planning to run eight of his string of 35 horses at Santa Anita.

John took time out from his acting in Republic's "Wyoming" to wax eloquent.

"I'll give you a good tip," he said. "I've got a horse I think has a good chance to win the $100,000 derby. It's a filly named 'Pretty Mary.'"

"You watch her!"

As your reporter was writing this item, two turf experts looked over our shoulder and said "what do you write that kind of junk for?"

"Pretty Mary" hasn't any more chance of winning the Derby than you have.

After having played a lot of tips from turf experts, your reporter immediately decided he'll risk a couple of bucks on "Pretty Mary" when she runs.

Anti-Nazi Baroness Will Lecture Here

Helena, The Baroness De Polenzska, Will Address Executives Club Tuesday

Helena, the Baroness de Polenzska

Helena, the Baroness de Polenzska, will address the Executives club at its dinner meeting in The Castle-Town Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Wives of the members will be guests as usual.

Her subject will be "Europe, Left or Right?" While the bulk of her remarks will be concerned with the serious subject which she has announced, the baroness will also reveal some of the hair-raising exploits of her own life in Germany. She was imprisoned by the Nazis, and her late husband's estates were confiscated.

Witty and charming, the baroness has an interesting story to tell of intrigue and duplicity in the leading European circles in the years just preceding the war.

Army To Save Coal To Aid In U. S. Emergency

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(INS)—The war department has announced that it will make available for public emergency needs a quarter of a million tons of coal to be saved by the army.

The department's plan, the solid fuel administrator said, will enforce "severe, army-wide economy measures" to effect this saving in coal.

Orders were issued to all commands outlining the strict measures. They will equal those in force in communities near army installations. Conservation methods placed in effect include:

Discontinuance of all exterior lighting such as perimeter, fence and area lights within the limits of internal security; reduction of street lighting to the lowest practical limit; rigid control of electricity in buildings.

her friends up to my house but even then she does not talk much to them."

In writing this mother I enclosed the bulletin and tried to explain to her why she could not help her daughter by talking to her about the very shortcomings this child is quite aware of. I called to her attention the positive suggestions of the bulletin—encouraging her to acquire social skills such as in sports, folk-dancing and social dancing, skills in arts and crafts, hobbies and so on, in enriching and broadening her interests in current events, outstanding achievements in the world of sport, music and the screen, through reading magazines and the newspaper—just to name a few. Most of all, I tried to help this mother see that at best a timid, lonely person cannot change herself all at once, that it is a long, hard uphill pull.

HOPE TO RECOVER WINDSOR JEWELS

LONDON, Dec. 7.—(INS)—The London Evening Standard said today that Scotland Yard knows the identity of the "master-mind" behind the recent theft of $30,000 in jewels from the Duchess of Windsor and has been seeking him for the last six weeks.

Important information was said to have been supplied by a Paris jeweler who made a secret trip to London yesterday under an assumed name aboard the Golden Arrow, guarded by an escort of detectives.

Police still hope the jewels will be recovered and believe they were smuggled into France past customs officers at Dover with the aid of "fur-coated women accomplices."

No arrest is believed imminent but the investigation is being pressed with all vigor.

Munitions Blow

Up Near Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Dec. 7.—(INS)—Japanese munitions stored at Kiangnan only eight miles from the heart of Shanghai exploded suddenly today and set off huge fires easily visible from the city's business district.

There were no immediate reports of any casualties.

Merchants Show Excellent Co-operation with Government in Complying with Spirit of UTILITY ORDER U-14

TO LIMIT USE OF ELECTRICITY

The local merchants are to be congratulated for their recognition of the seriousness of the emergency and their efforts to make the order effective. Their compliance, at a time when promotional lighting is most advantageous to their businesses, is a tribute to their patriotism.

In order that those who missed the first published details of the order may have an opportunity to study them, we are reprinting applicable sections of Utility Order U-14.

UTILITY ORDER U-14

A critical shortage of coal threatens in many parts of the country to reduce electricity supplies below the levels necessary to provide for essential power requirements and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

(c) INITIAL CURTAILMENT. After 6:00 o'clock p. m. on Monday, November 25, 1946, no consumer shall use electricity for any of the purposes listed in Schedule I of this order except in those areas listed as exempt in Schedule IV of this order.

(h) APPEALS. Appeals from the restrictions on uses of electricity listed in Schedules I, II or III shall be addressed to the Office for Emergency Controls, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: U-14.

(i) EXEMPTIONS. The restrictions of this order do not apply to (1) electric suppliers who use no bituminous coal for the generation of electricity and who are not interconnected with another electric supplier subject to such restrictions, or (2) consumers of such electric suppliers. Any other electric supplier who considers that compliance with this order will not substantially prolong its ability or that of the electric supplier with which it is interconnected to render service, may apply to the Office for Emergency Controls, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: U-14, to exempt the area it serves from the restrictions of this order.

(j) NOTICE. (1) Each electric supplier shall, as soon as practicable, notify its consumers by publication or otherwise of the uses of electricity prohibited or curtailed by this order.

(2) If any electric supplier has knowledge of a violation of this order by a person to whom it supplies electricity, it shall inform the person of the violation unless it has evidence that the person has been informed of the violation in some other manner. If the violation is continued, the electric supplier shall notify the person in writing of the specific terms of the order which apply and of the penalties prescribed for violation and shall mail a copy of the notice to the regional compliance office of the CPA for the area in which the consumer is located, Ref: U-14.

(k) VIOLATIONS. When the Civilian Production Administration determines that any person is using electricity in violation of this order, it may direct the electric supplier serving such person to disconnect service and prescribe the conditions under which service may be reconnected. In addition, any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who in connection with this order willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment.

(1) REPORTS. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 25th day of November, 1946.

To Our Water Customers—

Suggestions for the care of water pipes during cold weather.

Before Cold Weather Sets In— DO THIS...

Wrap exposed water pipes with old newspapers, rags or burlap. Your water meter, if located in the basement, should also be wrapped with old newspapers, rags, or burlap. If meter is located in vault outside your house, it is already protected.

DO THIS...

Make your basement snug. Repair broken window panes. Stuff cracks in walls, around windows and doors which admit cold air. This precaution will save fuel, too.

● Turn off and drain outside fixtures.

During Bitterly Cold Weather— DO THIS...

Open one faucet located highest in your house and let a small trickle of water run all night. One quart a minute is enough.

These simple precautions now will save future inconvenience and possible costly repairs, resulting from frozen water pipes.

Few Babies Here Named After Any War Heroes

Despite the fact that the birth list has been longer this year in Lawrence county than for many previous years, name-frantic parents have not been getting their ideas from current heroes, political leaders or even movie stars.

They are using the names which just happened to strike their fancy, or in the case of the boys especially, were the names of the father, grandfather or an uncle.

For example, out of 150 babies born in November, there was only one Alexis, which may or may not have been influenced by the name of Alexis Smith, the movie star. Two Bernadettes may have derived their names from the story and movie of the life of the saint.

Jacquelyn was another of the less common names, as was Charly. As for the more common names, instead of the Nadines, Doloreses and Brendas of a few years ago, Dianna or Dianne, Linda or Lynne, Patricia,

Rev. Errki Vournos Of Finland Speaks On Rehabilitation

Finnish Pastor, On Good-Will Tour,
Expresses Gratitude Of People
For Aid From America

Just concluding a three-month good-will tour of America, the Rev. Errki Vournos of Lohi, Finland, spoke in the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran church on South Ray street Wednesday evening. He brought members of the congregation special greetings from the heavily burdened Republic of the North, and spoke of the rehabilitation work now going on in the little republic.

Rev. Vournos expressed gratitude for the aid, which has been sent from the United States by the Quakers in Northern Finland, and for the hundreds of thousands of individual packages sent there from friends in America.

The Lutheran World Action will spend $1,000,000 to help the needy in Finland, he stated. This aid has affected the people of Finland in two ways, he pointed out: first, they feel that they have not been forgotten, and secondly, it has given them new vigor to work and help themselves.

Most of the goods produced in Finland at the present time have to be sent to Russia as reparation payments.

Rev. Vournos told of a visit he made to Lapland, where he was formerly located, just before coming to the United States, and stated that the morale of the people there is high. He will sail from New York on December 20, and will be on the high seas en route home on Christmas Day, but will be happy in knowing that he will bear the promise of continued aid to his stricken people from their many friends in America.

"Smithies" Continue To 'Carry On'

Work goes on as usual in one of the few surviving blacksmith shops in the county as George Robinson and the photographer of The News chat about current events.

In business together since 1905, when George M. Young began working for George G. Robinson, these two blacksmiths have maintained their shop which is one of the few remaining horseshoeing shops in the county.

Located in New Wilmington, the shop is largely patronized by the Amish, although many people who own saddle horses also take them to this shop to be shod.

The inside is like the interior of the traditional old-fashioned blacksmith shop, with an anvil and a vise which came over from England in a sailboat a hundred and twenty-five years ago, the forge, and the barrels on which visitors sit.

Mr. Robinson's father, grandfather, and great-grandfather also were blacksmiths. His great-grandfather learned the trade in England, and was naturalized in the United States in 1840.

Tot Names States And Their Capitals

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—(INS)—Two-year-old Corey Jones, of Indianapolis and Washington, D. C., can name all 48 states and their respective capitals.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vane A. Jones, explain that their baby son displayed an aptitude for memorizing information, about the time he began to talk. Jones is a federal government accountant but maintains his legal residence in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Jones taught him the states and their capitals in three weeks after she heard an older boy on a radio program recite them.

Corey, however, demands a reward, such as an ice cream cone, when he has performed a memory feat.

Woman's Intuition Proves Accurate

Policemen Jedzinski, Hillers and Reese, following a woman's tip, apprehended Richard Kile, 14 and Patrick Damore, 15, who recently escaped from a juvenile's farm at New Boston, Mich. The boys were seen in the first ward. The woman informed police they acted as though they might be runaways. Police found the boys at Butler avenue and the city limits, and the woman's intuition proved accurate.

Brown, a bridegroom of nine months, admitted that he had stayed up two days getting ready for the contest but said that was merely a precaution—he can drop off to sleep at the drop of an eyelid, anywhere, anytime.

Army Mule Team Takes To The Air

CAMP CARSON, Colo.—(INS)—The army's only mule pack battalion, which belongs to the 11th Field Artillery, has gone modern and taken to the air.

The long ears, in a test demonstration, were loaded in a C-82 converted to a flying stable, and flown over Camp Carson to initiate them to flying.

Anticipating trouble, the mules were shared with a special harness which prevented them from kicking out the side of the planes. But the trio of mules reacted like any other flying novice.

During landing and take-off, the most hazardous portion of the flight the mules, sweating heavily, but at 9,000 feet, they calmed down.

Mass Petition Is Sent To Graham Asking More Sugar

Many Letters Are Reported Being Sent To Washington Seeking Additional Sugar

Adding to individual letters to the congressmen and United States Senators asking for an additional sugar stamp before Christmas, a mass petition containing over 50 names of householders has been sent to Congressman Louis E. Graham by women in the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school district on Lutton and Cunningham avenues.

Unless an additional sugar stamp is granted a lot of youngsters in New Castle, like every other city are going to be short on home made Christmas candy and cookies this year. If the sugar were short in New Castle no attempt would be made to get additional supplies, but the retail and wholesale merchants are loaded.

The Department of Agriculture has promised an additional stamp sometime next April which will do little good just now. The regular sugar stamp has been timed to be validated sometime after January 1 which is after the holidays.

The only way to get action is to make the facts known to the elected representatives in Washington. More letters, telegrams and petitions will serve to convince them that sugar is needed here for Christmas. And the sugar is available.

Patrons Asked To Aid Rural Carrier

Ed McBride, superintendent at Mahoningtown post office, now that the mail delivery is increasing in volume as the Yuletide season approaches, he asks the patrons on the rural route to help facilitate delivery by their carrier.

One method of helping materially would be for all patrons to have their mail properly stamped before placing in their boxes for collection. The carrier always has with him a full supply of stamps, that may be purchased from him in quantities, to enable folks to stamp their own mail. The post office department requires this to be done.

After demonstrating outside the Parliament the women—proclaiming themselves "Demones"—pushed their way into the government building despite efforts of the police to halt them.

Leaders said they were looking for the "nourishment minister" to demand reduced prices for potatoes and cabbages "because the workmen are hungry."

After calm was restored, the council of ministers refused an audience to a 15-woman delegation.

Several newsmen and policemen were attacked by the rioters, before order was established.

Meantime, miners in Tatabanya went on strike demanding more food.

CANCER STOPPED HERE

Cancer kills children, too — it respects neither age nor sex . . .

A doll . . . a kiddie car . . . a teddy bear gather dust in many attics, for this year 2,000 American girls and boys will die of cancer.

This deadly killer will claim more children between the ages of 5 and 20 than Infantile Paralysis, Scarlet Fever, Typhoid Fever, and Meningitis combined!

We must face the cold, stark facts of cancer.

In 1946, 175,000 Americans are doomed to die of cancer unless we do something about it. That is 478 every day . . . 20 every hour . . . 3 every ten minutes. It includes men in the prime of life—frequently the family breadwinner. It includes wives and mothers—for cancer is the greatest and cruellest killer of women between 35 and 50. It includes children—any child in any home.

BUT THERE IS VITAL HOPE

With grants of several millions of dollars from the American Cancer Society, The National Research Council is engaged in a vast, nationwide research program . . . a program as comprehensive as the one that produced the atomic bomb. Without a doubt, science will solve the mystery of cancer eventually. Meantime . . .

PROTECT YOURSELF

Learn cancer's danger signals and be on the alert for them. See your doctor at least once a year. Even on the basis of today's knowledge, one in every three may be saved through early diagnosis and prompt, effective treatment. Support the work of the American Cancer Society, whose life-saving crusade is carried on through voluntary contributions. Your participation may save your own life!

PROTECT YOURSELF!

CANCER'S DANGER SIGNALS

1. Any sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth or lips.
2. A painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast, lip or testis.
3. Progressive change in the color or size of a wart, mole or birthmark.
4. Persistent indigestion.
5. Persistent hoarseness, unexplained cough, or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Bloody discharge from the nipple or from any of the natural body openings.
7. Any radical change in normal bowel habits.

The Dim-Out Regulation Exempts Christmas Trees

From a lighting standpoint this Christmas promises to be a rather sombre affair. The dimout order of the Federal government, necessary in order to conserve coal, has specifically exempted Christmas trees in the home.

Christmas doesn't seem like Christmas without a tree. When you get your tree be sure it is a freshly cut tree, one that will not shed its needles in a few days. Our trees are cut daily from our own nurseries, thus guaranteeing you one that will hold its needles until long after time for taking it down.

Drive out to the nursery on the Butler road and select your own from our huge stock . . .

Move To Bar Franco Regime

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 7.—(INS)—A United Nations drafting sub-committee agreed today that the fascist regime of Franco in Spain must be quarantined against any participation in international affairs.

The substance of an American resolution recommending that the present Spanish government be debarred from world agencies of conventions under United Nations auspices was passed 14 to 0 but the United States was one of two nations to abstain from voting on the paragraph.

The U. S. abstention resulted when a Polish amendment which broadens the meaning of the article was adopted by the same vote. The Netherlands member also abstained after asserting the measure would do more harm to the United Nations than to France.

The combined U. S.-Polish paragraph recommends the Falangist regime be prohibited from joining any international agencies "established by or brought into relationship with" the United Nations.

It also prohibits Spanish participation in conferences or other activities arranged by the world organization until a new and acceptable government is formed in Spain.

The original wording offered by the United States merely listed world agencies "initiated by" the UN.

One remarkable feature of the vote is the enormous development of the wine-pipe within the keel of the breastbone, where it is coiled and twisted before emerging into the neck.

The Azerbaijan balloting will not commence until election inspectors reach their posts, in about a week's time.

We Pledge Every Effort To Keep Them Rolling

No more serious economic crisis has confronted the United States in half a century than the present one, due to the coal strike. Coal is the life blood of rail transportation and without coal, it is natural that facilities must be shortened.

The pressure to get commodities hauled by motor truck has already commenced and as the crisis continues the pressure will be greater. As truck operators we pledge our every effort towards moving necessary commodities as fast as it is humanly possible.

Every truck that is fit to "roll the road" will be used every hour that it is possible to do so. Foodstuffs, milk, medicines, that be delivered and our efforts to do so will be limited only by human and mechanical capacity.

Seek To End School Strike

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Dec. 7.—(INS)—Several clergymen and businessmen today threw their support behind 90 striking Coal township school teachers seeking individual $300 cost-of-living bonuses.

Unexpected support came from the Rt. Rev. Monsignor M. M. Hassett, pastor of St. Edwards church and Rev. Lester D. Updegrave, pastor of St. Johns Evangelical church and president of the Shamokin and Coal Township Ministerial Association.

Approximately 2400 students have missed classes since the walk-out began December 2.

At a rally of more than 500 persons last night, 10 men volunteered to attempt to persuade township school officials and the strikers to adopt some agreement and end the walkout.

John Mangle, a high school teacher and president of the CIO-Public Workers' Union which embraced the teachers, refused to budge from his position that the walkout would not end until the adjustments were made.

He refused to take cognizance of statements by the Department of Public Instruction that it was powerless to boost salaries above levels mandated by the General Assembly.

Princeton Class Give Three Plays

Members of the public speaking class of Princeton High school entertained a group of guests in the school auditorium Friday evening with a group of one-act plays.

In the first "Till Eat My Hat" were Kenneth Jones, Sarah Gibson, Doris Marshmer, Norma Shaffer and Eleanor Kelly while the cast of the comic "Where's That Report Card?" included Pearl Young, Joan Shira, Lois White, Mabel Harlan, Harry Dayner and Junior Jones with Carol Blair as the prompter for both plays.

Marylou Kildoo as the reader and John DeGruotola, Frank Collins, Anna Gibson, Mary Ann Warsing, and Kenneth Jones as the actors did a fine job with the pantomime "The Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter". Stage managers ticket sellers, make-up artists, and ushers were all members of the class.

Mrs. Alafretta Johnson was the director, and S. A. Eakin conducted the orchestra which played between the acts.

Fame Of State Is World-Wide

Most of these are native Pennsylvanians, many of them men and women in the armed services who never fail to tell the story of Pennsylvania's greatness.

Gen. Eisenhower Is Much Concerned On 'Super-Blitz' Planes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today expressed serious concern over the nation's preparations for the "super-blitz" warfare of the future.

The army chief of staff declared at a news conference before his departure for a month's rest in Florida:

"We are still trying to make up our minds what to do between now and the super-blitz period. There will come a time when we will have to think in terms of 'Buck Rogers' warfare."

Eisenhower said he was authorized by Secretary of War Patterson to state that "there have been no atomic bombs sent to England or to any other country and any statement to the contrary is untrue."

He referred to persistent reports that a stockpile of atomic missiles had been shipped to England.

The army chief, taking his first real vacation since before the war, will undergo treatment at Miami, Fla., for a shoulder ailment.

Compton Predicts Atomic Heat In '55

PARIS, Dec. 7.—Atomic power may become a serious competitor to coal in the United States by about 1955 "if political difficulties do not seriously intervene," Dr. Arthur H. Compton said today.

The atomic scientist, who is chancellor of St. Louis' Washington University, spoke to a Sorbonne gathering of savants on the fourth anniversary of the losing of nuclear fission in Chicago.

Upholding the use of the bomb against Japan, Compton said: "Not to have used this newfound power to stop short the most disastrous war of history would have been unpardonable. Humanity's greatest need was a decisive weapon. We who had atomic power in our hands would have been traitors to mankind if we had not built the weapons and used them with tempered blows."

WALKER ESTATE PUT AT $25,000

NEW YORK.—The estate of the late James J. Walker, former New York mayor, may not exceed $25,000, the law firm of Sylvester and Harris disclosed when the will was filed for probate in surrogate's court. Walker, who died Nov. 18, left $5000 each and his personal effects to his two adopted children, James J. Walker, 11, and Mary Ann Walker, 11, and $5000 to his sister, Mrs. Nan Walker Burke. He also left $10,000 to his first wife, Janet Allen Walker, with the provision that if he bequeathed to her more than 25 per cent of the net value of the estate, her share is to be trimmed to that percentage.

His present assignment is that of administrative clerk at the wing headquarters.

U. S. FIREFIGHTERS DENIED OVERTIME

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Court of Claims ruled that government firefighters who were on duty as much as 84 hours a week during the war were not entitled to time and one-half pay for the overtime.

The court, in what attorneys said was the first of more than 30 such cases on file, denied the claims of Albert F. Conn, Robert D. Flint and Willie E. Nelson, who worked as civilian firefighters at the Army Air Base in Gulfport, Miss., during the war.

Justice Department attorneys who contested the claim said there were approximately 30,000 potential claimants in the War Department alone.

Frederick Schwerner, Washington attorney for the three, said the case may be taken to the Supreme Court.

Flail Occupation Plan In Germany

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(INS)—The failure of Allied occupation authorities to work out a cohesive and intelligent program for the rehabilitation of war-ravaged Germany and her people was flailed today by two speakers at a luncheon of the foreign policy association.

Both men, James P. Warburg, former deputy director of the O. W. F. overseas branch, and Arthur Henry C. Wolfe, agreed without question that Germany is Europe's "powerhouse," and as such she must be restored economically before the rest of the continent can begin to recover.

Warburg summed it up this way: "The whole problem, simply stated, is how to make the poorhouse into a power-house for reconstruction, without letting the powerhouse again become an arsenal."

Or, if you prefer, how to get German economy up out of the cellar.

New Castle Drops Opener To Youngstown East 28-25

Locals Impress Fans With Scrap In Opening Tilt

Youngstown East Wins At Foul Line, New Castle Just As Good Offensively

BATTLE AVALON NEXT TUESDAY

Unable to cope with height and experience, two vital factors to any basketball team, the New Castle High "Red Hurricane" quintet began the 1946-47 floor season at Washington High court last night by dropping a close 28 to 25 decision to the classy veteran Youngstown East team. A capacity crowd of around 1,000 fans witnessed the home inaugural.

New Castle began a new basketball regime under the coaching of Bill Douglas and his assistant, Clark McClelland, and the fans put their stamp of approval on the two young coaches despite the fact that East won both games, the preliminary going to the Ohio reserves 28 to 20.

East Wins On Fouls

Youngstown East with a veteran squad back from last year, and rated "the team to beat in Youngstown this year," did not outplay New Castle anywhere but the foul line, making 10 out of 26 fouls to 7 out of 12 for the Douglass coached boys. New Castle had nine field goals and so did the visitors.

The first period was a slow affair with neither team showing much in the way of offense, the score reading 3 to 3 with New Castle leading through the medium of five straight fouls, tossed in by Don Black. The lone field goal was made by Villott of Youngstown.

Locals Lead At Half

New Castle led the Ohioans at the half 11 to 9, with young Don Walters setting the first New Castle field goal of the season early in the second period. "Chuck" Rea and Janacone, a sub, got field goals in the second period also. Brown and McKenna did the East scoring, the former a sub for Savna.

East scored back in the third period and grabbed the lead toward the end of the stanza 18 to 16.

Bartos Wins Game

Don Bartos, the New Castle forward, tied the count at 18-18 as the fourth and final period got under way, and Rea made it 20 to 18 with a field goal. With five minutes left in the game New Castle led 22 to 19 when Rea got another field goal. Two East fouls closed the gap at 22 to 19 with four minutes left. John Bartos shot a foul that tied the count at 22 all for the seventh time in the game that the score was knotted.

Bartos put East ahead with a field goal, and they kept it to the end with New Castle trying desperately with a minute or so left to close the gap, and Black did send the local hopes soaring with a field goal with second left to play that made it 26 to 25 in East's favor, but another field goal by Bartos "iced the game" as the seconds ticked away.

Play Avalon Tuesday

Acting Captain "Chuck" Rea and Don Black led the locals with nine points apiece, while young Don Walters and Jimmy "Harp" Janacone used as subs, played a fine game. John Bartos was the star in the East lineup with ten points, while Brown a sub, had seven points, five of them on fouls.

New Castle will return to the hardwood court next Tuesday meeting Avalon High at Washington floor. Coach Bill Douglas of course was a little disappointed at losing the first one, but pointed out that "we will improve, I'm proud of your efforts tonight and the scrap you displayed," Douglas told the boys.

MOUZON IS FACING OPERATION MONDAY

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7.—(INS)—Scrappy young Wesley Mouzon, who was defeated in his title bid by Lightweight Champion Bob Montgomery last week, will undergo an overdue eye operation Monday.

Several days before his tilt with the Babcock, Mouzon was advised to have his right eye, the retina of which was partially detached, operated on. But he entered the ring in that condition and left the fight a knockout victim with the retina completely detached.

Hickory Thumps Union Five, 32-16

Bogilin Is Star Of Game As Scotties Drop Second Straight Floor Encounter

With Bogilin, their big center, impressing on offense and defense, Hickory high thumped the Union high "Scotties" last night on the latter's floor, 32-16.

The invaders stopped the Patterson passers cold in the first half with a tight zone defense, and although the Scotties rallied in the last two frames, they could not surmount the lead.

Roberts played a fine game for the losers, guarding well and handling the ball with good control.

Marcel Cerdan Defeats Abrams

Employs Attack Similar To That Used By Chip To Win Debut

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(INS)—Marcel Cerdan, European and French middleweight champion, was accepted by American boxing fans today as the real McCoy.

Cerdan proved his class in his American debut at Madison Square Garden last night by winning an unanimous 10-round decision over Georgis Abrams, Washington, D. C., in a grueling bout.

At the end of eight rounds the fight was practically even. But the bull-shouldered Frenchman from Morocco met the American's every counter-offensive with a two-handed barrage, and rallied to win the decision.

The man from Morocco seldom backed up, and proved that he could go all out in the rough and tough American style of slugging.

A crowd of 16,917 paid $83,859 to see the bout.

CURIOSITY TURNS INTO TRAGEDY

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—(INS)—Curiosity was turned to tragedy today for Donald Tuttle, 16-year-old high school student.

While on his way home last night from a movie's stage, where he worked, Tuttle stopped to investigate a wrecked automobile which had plowed into a standing trolley.

Behind the wheel of the wrecked automobile was his father, Wilson Shannon Tuttle, 45, sales engineer, who was driving to the store to pick up his son.

The elder Tuttle died en route to the Little Company of Mary hospital.

Rescue Mission Plans Holiday Aid To Needy

You may have your Christmas dinner planned already. And if you haven't planned it, you know you will have a good one anyway. Perhaps it would help digest your dinner better if you knew you had aided in providing some other folks with dinner on Christmas, folks whose outlook for that day is rather slim unless folks like you help a little.

Realizing that someone has to take the initiative in such things, Rev. D. R. Wert, superintendent of the City Rescue Mission has arranged to provide baskets of food for the needy on Christmas Day and already has a list of families who should receive aid.

Needs Money
Christmas baskets cost money just like everything else and Rev. Wert has arranged for a Tag Day in New Castle on Saturday, December 14 from which it is hoped $1000 will be raised, the amount tentatively set as the cost of providing all the baskets necessary.

Junior high school girls, 100 of them, will be on the streets that day with collection boxes and tags, under the direction of Mrs. Clara Spiker. The girls will be stationed at street intersections, and various buildings and by the time they finish the day it is hoped their total will be at least $1000.

Of course if you don't want to wait for the Tag Day and would like to get your contribution in early, you can send a check or money down to the Rescue Mission any time.

Rev. Wert is also collecting toys which he will distribute for Christmas. If you have a flock of toys at home that the youngsters have outgrown, and want to help someone, drop them off at the City Rescue Mission on South Mercer street and they will be repaired and distributed.

The greatest single cause of fire in the home is dirty and defective chimneys and flues.

State Air Tour Planned For 1947

Tourists May Have Chance To View Commonwealth From Air, Harrisburg Reports

HARRISBURG—Tentative plans for a vacation air tour of Pennsylvania next spring were announced today by the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission and the vacation and recreation bureau of the State Department of Commerce.

While no definite dates have been chosen for the week's sky tour it is expected it will begin May 17 and will continue for a week. The length of the tour may be extended, however, officials said, as plans develop.

Autumn Tour
Another tour of the state is planned for later in the year when autumnal coloring presents a magic spectacle on the Pennsylvania hills and over the meadows.

The proposed spring tour would be styled "The Green Tour," and it will come at a time when the Pennsylvania countryside has broken out into new green foliage, when fields are being tilled. The tour would take the aerial cruisers from one corner of the state to the other and will fly over most of the major scenic and historic sites and recreational areas with overnight stops at points to be selected.

The Pennsylvania Hotels Association has offered the fullest cooperation in making the initial tour a success.

Planned Vacation
The tour would be a planned aerial vacation and would be an all-expense tour. The initial cost would take care of overnight accommodations, meals, entertainment and automobile transportation from airfields to hotels and return. Books of tickets would be sold to each tourist, one ticket for each activity scheduled for the trip. Entries would be limited and would be entered in the order received.

"Pennsylvania's Green Tour" offers an ideal vacation for aircraft owners and their guests," say officials of the State Department of Commerce.

BAND LEADER SAYS JAZZ LOSING OUT

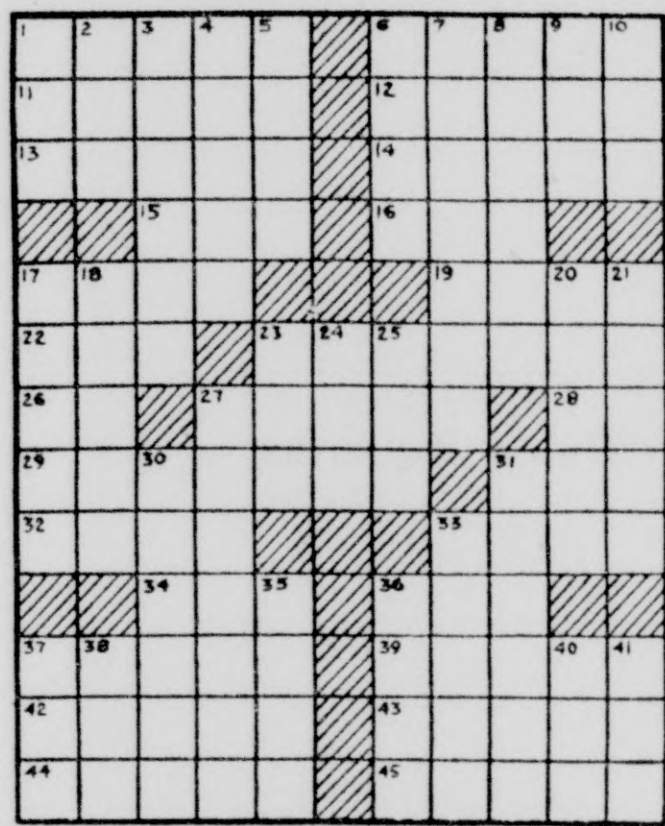

AMES, Ia.—Band Leader Frankie Masters believes that fast jazz and noisy stamp numbers are on the way out.

Masters, who, with his band, was on the Iowa State College campus to play at a pair of homecoming dances, said "definitely, very definitely, the trend is toward sweet music."

The popular orchestra leader explained that every place his band plays the dancers like sweet music best. He said when the band blazes out with a "jump" number the dancers either leave the floor or crowd around the bandstand to watch.

Barn Destroyed By Fire Today

Neshannock township and New Castle firemen were called to the property of Arthur McClain, of 1708 Neshannock boulevard, just beyond Oak Park cemetery, where a large barn was destroyed by fire, which started at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The blaze originated from an explosion in a brooder, and quickly spread through the structure. Mr. McClain had a number of chickens in the barn, but whether he was able to rescue any of them could not be learned.

The loss will be more than $1,800. It was stated.

RAIL SHARES IN UPWARD CLIMB

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(INS)—A one to four point climb in rail shares stood out today in an otherwise sluggish and quiet stock market. Heavy demand featured the opening and blocks as large as 15,000 shares of N. Y. Central were traded. In the second and final hour, however, volume tapered noticeably and best prices were reduced.

Bethlehem had a point advance erased and U. S. Steel dipped below its previous close for a time. Chrysler and General Motors managed fractional gains. Utilities extended yesterday's gains at the start but backed down later. Some chemicals slipped under Friday's final. American Telephone lost a fraction.

Rail bonds were strong and active. Curb shares were mixed.

Office workers take frequent days off for the "food hunt" on the black market. Many persons travel six hours daily to and from work. Several thousand are living in concrete subway stations. Tens of thousands are living in huts thrown together against the walls of ruins.

Elji Ishikawa, chief of Tokyo's planning department, estimates that it will cost ten times as much to rebuild Japan's capital in the wake of the B-29 raids as it cost after the 1923 earthquake.

Japan was fairly prosperous at the time of the earthquake but now, as one Allied official put it, "She's simply bankrupt and has a dim future."

The fifth anniversary of the Pacific war's treacherous opening blow finds the "Pearl Harbor Premier" Hideki Tojo on trial as a war criminal and hated by his own people.
